

LOBSTER FESTIVAL 2007

Come for the Feast,
Stay for the FUN!

For the third year running, Harbor Interfaith Services has been chosen to handle First Class ticket sales for the Port of Los Angeles Lobster Festival, which takes place Sept. 14-16 at Ports O' Call in San Pedro.

This event, the LARGEST lobster festival in the world, is a major fundraiser for our agency, as we receive a portion of each First Class ticket sale.

For only $39, you get a 1.25 lb. lobster, Cole slaw, a roll and your choice of a soft drink, beer or wine. You also get:

- Front-of-the line privileges
- A scenic VIP dining area
- Entry into the festival all weekend (That's a $50 value, for only $39!)

Plus, you'll feel good knowing that $13 from each ticket is donated to Harbor Interfaith Services, which helps us continue to offer services to more than 14,000 homeless and working poor families each year.

The festival's entertainment lineup this year includes a variety of bands, a pirate camp and a hilarious Lobster Dog contest. Kids under 12 get in FREE and there's a variety of rides and attractions for the WHOLE FAMILY.

For more information, check the festival's website at www.lobsterfest.com. To order your First Class tickets, fill out and send in the attached order form or call (310) 241-0292.

The World's Largest Lobster Festival